ARRANGING CONVENTION

Lutherans About Ready for Synod Meeting Here.

NOTED MEN WILL SPEAK

Preparations for the annual convention of the Pittsburg Synod of the Lutheran church to be held at Christ Lutheran church, Charleroi, next week from October 10 to October 14 inclusive, have about been completed, with the exception of the few minor details to be worked out finally. The entertainment of the host of delegates has been arranged for by Rev. C. E. Frontz, the local pastor, and members of his congregation.

The convention will be especially rich in features. The program has been mapped out by Rev. C. E. Frontz, who is the Synodical secretary together with other officials.

Monday evening at the opening session, Rev. Alonzo J. Turkle, the president will make his address, and the delegates will be welcomed by a reception. Tuesday morning there will be a business session, and the officers for the coming year elected, as is the custom of the synod at the previous year's meeting, will assume their offices. They are Rev. Jerome M. Guss, of Etna, president, and Harry C. Erdam, of Swissvaile, secretary. Rev. Turkle as president and Rev. Frontz as secretary will relinquish their duties. Tuesday afternoon the report of the missionary superintendent, Rev. J. Elmer Bittle, of Turtle Creek will be heard. A new mission at Glassport was formed during the past year. In carrying out the Home Mission Anniversary idea Rev. H. E. Clair of Wilkinsburg will make an address Tuesday evening.

Wednesday will be a feature day. It will be known as Foreign Mission Day. In the afternoon there will be addresses made by William A. Granville, Ph. D., to be inducted shortly as president of Gettysburg College, Dr. Charles Aikens, D. D., of Susquehanna University and Dr. Christen Jensen, a noted German theologian and teacher. In the evening Rev. Taylor Yeckley of Pittsburg and Rev. John Amberly, a missionary from India home on a furlough will make addresses.

Thursday will be featured by the ordination services in the evening, at which time three young men about to be graduated from theological seminaries will be ordained into the ministry and licensed to preach. This day will be known as Educational Day and Rev. J.C. Nicholas of Butler and Rev. Lewis Hay of Indiana will speak. The ordination services will be something new to Charleroi folks, and it is expected will be productive of much interest.

The elections of officers will be held on Thursday morning, and the following morning the work of the convention will be finished up and the convention adjourned.

Elks Arrange For Contest

Arrangements are being made for the annual Elk's hunt to be held from November 2 to 4 inclusive. Loren Hopkins and Robert J. McKean have been appointed captains of the opposing teams.

The hunt will start at 12 o'clock midnight on the opening date, and all game must be in the club house by 8 o'clock Friday evening. As usual a supper will follow the hunt, to be served on Tuesday evening, November 8. The losers in the contest will have the work to do in preparing for this event. G. T. Barger and Harvey Frye have been appointed as two of the judges in the contest and another is to be named. It is thought this year's hunt will surpass any heretofore held by the club.

SAID POISON WAS TAKEN

Claimed Charleroi Woman Makes Attempt at Suicide.

Made despondent, it is said, by domestic troubles Mrs. H. Boyle, of Shady avenue, this morning at 11 o'clock, with the end in view of terminating her earthly existence, took laudumn Owing to prompt medical attention she will in all probability recover.

Mrs. Boyle's mother notified Chief of Police C. W. Albright of the affair, upon discovering her daughter apparently dying, and Dr. James B. Barth was hurriedly summoned. He worked over the woman for some time and removed the poison from her stomach. She is now in fairly good shape.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED BEFORE DAMAGE TO ANY EXTENT IS DONE

Flames originating from a gas hot plate at the tailor shop of M. Wein, in the Wingett building on the corner of Sixth street and Washington avenue, brought the fire department out today at noon, but before they had arrived on the scene, the fire was extinguished without much damage having been done. The proprietor was attending the Jewish New Year services in the Bank hall and the place was locked up for the day. It was necessary to break the plate glass in the door to get to the fire.

Gave Farewell Party

The girls of Berryman's store last night tendered a farewell reception at the home of Miss Marie Velletay to Miss Ruth Richards, one of their number, who with her mother will leave shortly for Pittsburg to live. There were about 20 present and the evening was pleasantly spent with various social diversions and refreshments were served.

Ray Worcester, formerly of Charleroi, who is now located in Pittsburg was a visitor here yesterday with friends.

CANDIDATE TENER AT THE COUNTY SEAT ON THURSDAY

Instead of on Friday as originally planned, Hon. J. K. Tener, of Charleroi, Republican candidate for Governor, will be at Washington to attend the centennial on Thursday. In response to the many requests from county people arrangements have been made by the State campaign committee that he may come, and other engagements in the northern part of the State have been canceled. Plans are on foot to give him an impromptu reception.

It is expected that Charles Mattews of New Castle, candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, will be present as well as Mayor William A. Magee of Pittsburg, Congressmen James Francis Burke and A. J. Barchfield, Nominee S. C. Porter and a large number of other Allegheny Republicans.

BROOKINS MAKES GOOD FLIGHTS AT THE COUNTY SEAT

Crowds of people from this section are visiting Washington this week, which is holding its centennial celebration. This is described by those who have attended the opening days as a cross between old home week, circus day and a gigantic street carnival. The town is decorated like a Fourth of July celebration, and all the street fakirs are said to be there, the bearded lady, the "hot dog" stands, the fortune teller, and the thousand and one catch penny devices that follow "big doins."

The big feature of the celebration is the aviation exhibition, where Walter Brookins, one of the Wright Bros. aeroplane chaffeurs, is said to try to beat a bird at its own game. Mr. Brookins has made two successful flights, from the aviation field at Tylerdale a mile out of town. He soars again today weather permitting, and tomorrow will end his engagement. Another will make flights the rest of the week.

Today is Educational day. Special exercises will mark the celebrations. Everybody has company, and it is a geat timefor visits from countrycousins and out of town friends. Owing to the absence of adequate hotel accommodations, all who have vacant rooms have thrown them open to the public for the occasion.

Tomorrow is industrial day, and as Congressman J. K. Tener has signified his intention of being present a large number from the river district is also expected to be in attendance.

SUPERINTENDENT FITCH PROMOTED

E. C. Fitch, who has been the efficient superintendent of the Pittsburg and Charleroi, and the Pittsburg and Washington trolley lines for the Pittsburg Railways company, has been promoted to have charge of the South Side divisions of the same company, and assumed his new duties on the first day of October. Mr. Fitch will have charge of the South Side lines, the 30th street, tunnel, Carick and the interurban system as far out as Castle Shannon. It is the largest division operated by the Pittsburg Railways company and the most difficult, owing to the many hills encountered in this territory. The fine record made by Mr. Fitch while in charge of the division prompted his superiors to place him in charge of this important section.

The new officials in charge of the two interurban divisions are J. W. McKay, of Washington who will be general agent and Fred Ives, also of Washington, who will be operating superintendent.

Surprise Member

The Busy Bee Fancy Work club, tendered a surprise to Mrs. A. M. Doak, one of their members last night, at her home on Lincoln avenue. Mrs. Doak was presented with a number of napkins, each member of the club having worked one. An enjoyable evening was spent and refreshments were served.

Interesting Souvenir

On Thursday and Friday Kirk and Clark will present an interesting souvenir to every lady who visits their corset department to meet Miss Wray the representative of the Kalamazoo Corset company of Kalamazoo, Michigan. 49t2

Mr. and Mrs. John Shanton have left for Oklahoma City, Okla., where they will locate.

STOCKHOLDERS ASK REFUND OF BOND FOR WARD

Upon petition of the stockholders of the Bank of Coal Centre, by its counsel, Underwood and Meloy, the court yesterday ma le an order making the stockholders parties respondent to the petition of the bondsmen of Frederick Ward that the recognizance forfeited be lifted. The bondsmen ask for the return of that amount of the $5,000 not used in securing Ward's arrest and return to Washington, after he had forfeited his bond. Upon the petition of the bondsmen the court issued a rule on the county to show cause why the prayer of the petitioners should not be granted. The stockholders as well as the bondsmen will make answer to this rule. The stockholders, as was stated to the court some time since, expect to ask for a certain distribution of the amount of this bond, as provided under an act of assembly. Yesterday the county commissioners by their solicitor filed an answer to the rule opposing the lifting of the recognizance, as petitioned for by the executors of the late S. G. Walker. The commissioners aver that there is no warrant of law for the lifting of this forfeiture.

DEMONSTBATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE FALL OPENING

Kirk and Clark's big department store on McKean avenue will be the Mecca for all the women of the valley Thursday and Friday of this week. In addition to their annual fall opening on these days will be not only an unusual display of fall and seasonable millinery, but also a demonstration of the American Beauty corset, which is manufactured by that company of Kalamazoo, Mich. This is a corset that is particularly popular with the masses—the feminine masses—and the company is sending one of its most accomplished experts to demonstrate the corset's best points. This is Miss Wray, who will show the ladies how to select corsets best adapted to their respectve figures, and how to lace 'em so that they will make the form as symetrical as a fashion plate. Miss Wray will dispence a lot of corset lore that is valuable to every woman.

The millinery department will show a larger and better display than ever. Miss Anna Ellenberger is in charge, and creations will be trimmed to order as desired on short notice. All of the other departments will be especially arranged for the opening sale, with the latest seasonable showtions. The fall opening of Kirk and Clark is always an event that is looked for by the women of the community and the special features arranged will attract large crowds. A handsome souvenir will be given to every lady who visits the American Beauty corset demonstration.

Epidemic of Diphtheria.

An epidemic of diphtheria is raging in Brownsville and bad sewage conditions is held responsible. Dunlaps creek, into which the sewers leads is at low ebb and when the sewage enters the stream it does not pass out into the river but remains along the banks, drying up and giving forth bad odors.

Move to Washington

Rev. I. N. Frye and family have gone to Washington, the county seat where they will reside temporarily. Rev. Frye's property on Washington avenue has been purchaed by William Perigran.

Contest For New Members

Protected Home Circle to Have Literary Features.

Charleroi Circle 303, P. H. C., has entered a literary contest for the fall and winter months for the purpose of increasing the membership and at the same time to get into the big class initiation which will be held in Exposition Hall, Pittsburg, December 4. The members of the local circle here entered into the matter with a vim as the record for new applications shows 22 up to last Friday evening and the contest is but two weeks on.

The membership contest is now divided into two sides. C. E Velletay is captain of No. 1 side with colors yellow and green. Frank B. Taylor is captain of side No 2, colors orange and black. A feature of the "grand finale" will be a banquet. Each member getting two new members will be entitled to transportation and admission to the big class at the Exposition building.

Much interest is being taken in P. H. C. circles all through the State as 1,500 new members have been asked for in the campaign.

KEYSTONERS HAVE ROOMS

Meeting of Aggrieved Ones Scheduled This Week.

With a room about 9 by 9, situated over the store of C. C. Crill on Fifth street, to accommodate the large crowds of two or three which seek admittance every once in a while, the Charleroi Keystone Club expects to hold another "rousing" meeting Thursday night Needless to state a big attendance is expected—possibly a dozen or so.

The Keystone party is liberal in its claims for Charleroi. Of the entire vote they claim half for Democratic Outcast Berry and his bunch, or possibly to make sure they may overlap slightly that number in Candidate Tener' home town.

The excuse for the Charleroi section of the Keystone party is obvious—they can't agree to agree with Mr. Tener's views, because E. F. Acheson "Ossie" Mitchell and some more party heads from Washington, Pa., and other places say not to. Last night the question was asked of organizers of the party here what was their trouble. Thereupon was poured forth a list of grievances, the entire number of which might be covered by the ungrammatical expression often heard about election time, "He never done nothing for me."

The griveances are all of a more or less petty nature, and even the Charleroi council is brought into the argument. It is a case of personalities from the beginning, evidentally. The Charlerci partisans may be sincere but the objecitons advanced are now well founded.

Girls Arrested

In the dragnet which the Pittsburg police have thrown out in the underworld in Pittsburg, concerning the alleged white slave traffic between that city and New York, two girls from Monongahela valley towns were arrested. They were taken in custody because they were under age, and returned to their homes. They were found in a First avenue resort.

CHURCHES TO TAKE CENSUS

Charleroi Divided Off For Religious Work.

SIX DISTRICTS FORMED

The Adult Federated classes of Charleroi are making arrangements for the various churches to begin taking the religious census of Charleroi on October 17. Charleroi has been divided into six districts, the same as the new voting precincts, and each church assigned a district

Sixth street is the general division line. The first district will be southeast of Washington avenue, and the First Presbyterian church is to take the census there. District No. 2 will be south of Sixth street, between Washington avenue and Crest avenue, the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church to take the census there. West of Crest avenue and south of Sixth street, known as District No. 3, will be the Christian churche's territoy. The Episcopal church will have the district north of Sixth street, and west of Washington avenue, the Lutheran the territory north of Sixth between Crest and Washington avenues, and the French Presbyterian and the Baptist the territory from Crest avenue north of Sixth street to the western boundary of the town.

Each church will be supposed to appoint its own enumerators and he will arrange the work according to his own ideas. The address, street number, name of family, church affiliation, church preference, number of children in the family, ages, number of children belonging to church, the church, number of family attending Sunay school, the Sunday school, the number of roomers, to what church they go, and whatever other information may in the opinion of the enumerator be desired. Cards have been prepared for the census.

EDUCATORS COMING FOR CONVENTION HERE NEXT WEEK

Many noted educators will be in Charleroi next week to attend the Pittsburg Synodical convention at Christ Lutheran church. Heading the number will be Dr. Cristen Jensen, William A. Granville, Ph D., and Rev. Charles Aikens, D. D. Dr. Jensen is a president of a German Theological school and is in America on a visit. He is one of the most noted educators of his own country. Mr. Granville is to become shortly the president of Gettysburg College at Gettysburg. He has been a member of the Yale University faculty for some years and is recognized as one of the country's leading educators. Dr. Aikens is the president of Susquehanna University, the leading Lutheran school of the State. Many ministers who are leading spirits of the Lutheran denomination in the State are expected.

Sore on Grim

Those papers in different quarters of the State who are either supporting Berry, the Keystone candidate for Governor, or knocking the State administrion because they belong to one of the minority factions, are just now turning their batterites upon Grim, the Democratic candidate for Governor. Because he refused to make a deal with Berry, who proposed that both withdraw and effect a fusion, the knockers against the Republican ticket are particularly sore on Grim. By their offer of fusion the Berry people confessed the hoplessness of their cause, and this show down of their weakness is causing the Berry forces much anguish of mind. Hence the diatribes against Grim.

In making the charge that it was the influence of Senator Penrose that induced Grim to reject the fusion proposition, the Berry people make another confession of weakness. If Berry were the formidable candidate his supporter profess to believe, he would be dangerous to Republican success, and the leaders of the latter party be glad to would retire him from the field. If Penrose prefers to have Grim stand, as the Keystoners charge, it is than pretty conclusive evidence that the Republican leaders have nothing to fear from Berry. The serenity with which the Republic State committee are conducting the campaign indicates that they are not at all alarmed over the situation. Four years ago, when there was a fusion between the Democrats and Lincoln Republicans, the regular Republican organization did some tall hustling. There is no general movement over the State against the head of the ticket, and the only thing in the campaign that damands active work is in the Congressional and Legislative districts where the Democratic central committee has indorsed Democratic candidates.

Monessen's Road Day

So successful was the "Road Day" at Monessen last week, that the business interests of the steel town feel very much encouraged over the prospect of county and State aid in the immediate future in the construction of improved roads to some of the populous trading centers contiguous to the town. The "Road Day" exercises consisted of a meeting of the Monessen Board of Trade, Belle Vernon Civic League and the Westmoreland county commissioners to discuss the claims of the river district citizens for improved roads leading from Monessen to Pricedale and Belle Vernon. The meeting was highly satisfactory, and the commissioners departed with the knowledge that the claims for improved roads were in accordance with conditions that were entitled to such recognition.

One of the strong arguments put forth by the Monessen citizens was the large array of accurate data, regarding the claims of that immediate section for precedence in road improvements. The commissioners were shown the exact amount of assessments levied for taxable purposes in both Monessen and Rostraver township; the amount paid for county purposes, and the percentage this district pays in proportion to the rest of the county. Correct data regarding population, travel, and physical conditions was also at hand, and the commissioners were confronted with an array of evidence that was irrefutable.

There is every indication that Monessen's "Road Day" will be productive of results. When the desired improvement are made a big outside trade will be deflected to Monessen that at the present time is divided among other trading centers.

Strange Bedfellows

Concerning former Congressman E. F. Acheson's attempt to make a fusion of the Democratic and Keystone parties the Connellsville Courier says:

"Politics makes strange bedfellows, is an old and true observation, and if all the grapevine specials from the underground world of politics are true Pennsylvania is furnishing some confirmations of the fact in this campaign.

"In the beginning it was alleged that the political firm of Penrose and Guffey controlled the two great parties of Pennsylvania and dictated their nominations, platforms and politics. The conventions met and nominated two very excellent tickets with the full consent of regularly chosen delegates elected by the people at a direct primary. If there was any bossism at Harrisburg or at Allentown, it was evidently with the consent of the people; and from their decision there is no appeal.

"But there are some excellent citizens in the State who still protested that the people had been deceived, and that it was their patriotic duty to rescue them from the crushing grasp of the machine, so they met together, each delegation being self appointed, and formed another party, which they called the Keystone Party. In their convention was one William H. Berry, a Democratic who pledged himself to the Democratic ticket at Allentown, but who changed his mind at Philadelphia to accept the nomination of the Keystoners for Governor.

"As time went on it developed that neither Webster Grim, the Democratic candidate, nor William H. Berry, the Keystone candidate, had any show of election; and Hon. Ernest Acheson of Washington county and Hon. William J. Brennan of Allegheny county, representatives of the Keystone and the Democratic parties, formed the political partnership of Acheson and Brennan and proposed to eliminate th Democratic and Keystone tickets and nominate a fusion ticket headed by Justice S. L. Mestrezat, David T. Watson or George W. Guthrie.

"It was a wonderful plan for the laying down of the asses and the lambs, but thus far it has failed to strike any keynote hard enough to emit an audible sound, and we now await the next turn of the opposition kaleidoscope."

If I were a railroad conductor,
As through the train I'd go,
I'd have the answer all ready
For every question, "Don't know."
I'd miss connectins for lots of men,
I'd run lone passengers past,
I'd tell them 'twas eight when I knew it was ten,
And I'd swear that their watches were fast,
For I couldn't afford to be civil
When every man in the load
Would look at my pin and watch and say,
"He stole them things from the road."

DO IT NOW

Charleroi People Should Not Wait Until It Is too Late

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious from of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Brice Ray, 121 Prospect avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "I can speak as high of Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time as when I publicly recommened it in 1907. At that time I told of the great benefit a member of my family had received from the use of this remedy, procured at Piper Bros' Drug Store. On several occasions since then, the person referred to has taken this remedy with the best of results.

The Cry of the Age is "Back to the Farm"

With the best market in the world at his door, the intensive farmer located in the Monongahela valley is the wise man of his generation.

Every town has as much need of the small truck, fruit and poultry farms around it as it has for more factories. Such farms make living better and cheaper for the laboring man and more business for the merchant.

I have secured control of a large farm within five minutes walk of the borough limits and will, within the next six weeks, sell it out in small farms. I now have purchasers for about one-half of it and owing to the great demand for small farms near Charleroi expect to close all sales for these farms in a very short time.

A farm big enough for all the boys to work as a truck, poultry and fruit farm while the father works at the mill, can be bought for the price of a cheap town lot. Good country school nearby.

A farm big enough to require the whole time of one intensive farmer can be bought for $500.00. Read the Pittsburg papers about the great land show which will be held there within the next few weeks and learn what can be raised on a few acres of ground by the new methods of intensive farming.

ASSESSMENT CUT DOWN TO 25 CENTS

Through an order of National President T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, the assessment of miners for the support of striking men in the Irwin and other fields has been cut down from $1 00 a month to 25 cents a month. Through the settlement of the Illinois strike there was a less number of non-employed miners to support, and from this and the fact that there had been some objections to the $1.00 assessment the reduction was made.

Stop Women And Consider

This Fact—that in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, was for years under her direction, and has ever since her decease continued to advise women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty causes them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. Such questioning and examination is unnecessary. Without cost you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Preparations for the annual convention of the Pittsburg Synod of the Lutheran church to be held at Christ Lutheran church, Charleroi, next week from October 10 to October 14 inclusive, have about been completed, with the exception of the few minor details to be worked out finally. FIRE EXTINGUISHED BEFORE DAMAGE TO ANY EXTENT IS DONE

Flames originating from a gas hot plate at the tailor shop of M. Wein, in the Wingett building on the corner of Sixth street and Washington avenue, brought the fire department out today at noon, but before they had arrived on the scene, the fire was extinguished without much damage having been done. The proprietor was attending the Jewish New Year services in the Bank hall and the place was locked up for the day. It was necessary to break the plate glass in the door to get to the fire.

Gave Farewell Party

The girls of Berryman's store last night tendered a farewell reception at the home of Miss Marie Valletay to Miss Ruth Richards, one of their number, who with her mother will leave shortly for Pittsburg to live. There were about 20 present and the evening was pleasantly spent with various social diversions and refreshments were served.

Ray Worcester, formerly of Charleroi, who is now located in Pittsburg was a visitor here yesterday with friends.

CANDIDATE TENER AT THE COUNTY SEAT ON THURSDAY

Instead of on Friday as originally planned, Hon. J. K. Tener, of Charleroi, Republican candidate for Governor, will be at Washington to attend the centennial on Thursday. In response to the many requests from county people arrangements have been made by the State campaign committee that he may come, and other engagements in the northern part of the State have been canceled. Plans are on foot to give him an impromptu reception.

It is expected that Charles Mattews of New Castle, candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, will be present as well as Mayor William A. Magee of Pittsburg, Congressmen James Francis Burke and A. J. Barcnfield, Nominee S. C. Porter and a large number of other Allegheny Republicans.

Crowds of people from this section are visiting Washington this week, which is holding its centennial celebration. This is described by those who have attended the opening days as a cross between old home week, circus day and a gigantic street carnival. The town is decorated like a Fourth of July celebration, and all the street fakirs are said to be there, the bearded lady, the "hot dog" stands, the fortune teller, and the thousand and one catch penny devices that follow "big doins."

The big feature of the celebration is the aviation exhibition, where Walter Brookins, one of the Wright Bros. aeroplane chaffeurs, is said to try to beat a bird at its own game. Mr. Brookins has made two successful flights, from the aviation field at Tylerdale a mile out of town. He soars again today weather permitting, and tomorrow will end his engagement. Another will make flights the rest of the week.

Today is Educational day. Special exercises will mark the celebrations. Everybody has company, and it is a geat timefor visits from countrycousins and out of town friends. Owing to the absence of adequate hotel accommodations, all who have vacant rooms have thrown them open to the public for the occasion.

Tomorrow is industrial day, and as Congressman J. K Tener has signified his intention of being present a large number from the river district is also expected to be in attendance.

SUPERINTENDENT FITCH PROMOTED

E. C. Fitch, who has been the efficient superintendent of the Pittsburg and Charleroi, and the Pittsburg and Washington trolley lines for the Pittsburg Railways company, has been promoted to have charge of the South Side divisions of the same company, and assumed his new duties on the first day of October. Mr. Fitch will have charge of the South Side lines, the 30th street, tunnel, Carick and the interurban system as far out as Castle Shannon. It is the largest division operated by the Pittsburg Railways company and the most difficult, owing to the many hills encountered in this territory. The fine record made by Mr. Fitch while in charge of the division prompted his superiors to place him in charge of this important section.

The new officials in charge of the two interurban divisions are J. W. McKay, of Washington who will be general agent and Fred Ives, also of Washington, who will be operating superintendent.

Surprise Member

The Busy Bee Fancy Work club, tendered a surprise to Mrs. A. M. Doak, one of their members last night, at her home on Lincoln avenue. Mrs. Doak was presented with a number of napkins, each member of the club having worked one. An enjoyable evening was spent and refreshments were served.

Interesting Souvenir

On Thursday and Friday Kirk and Clark will present an interesting souvenir to every lady who visits their corset department to meet Miss Wray the representative of the Kalamazoo Corset company of Kalamazoo, Michigan. 49t2

Mr. and Mrs. John Shanton have left for Oklahoma City, Okla., where they will locate.

STOCKHOLDERS ASK REFUND OF BOND FOR WARD

Upon petition of the stockholders of the Bank of Coal Centre, by its counsel, Underwood and Meloy, the court yesterday made an order making the stockholders parties respondent to the petition of the bondsmen of Frederick Ward that the recognizance forfeited be lifted. The bondsmen ask for the return of that amount of the $5,000 not used in securing Ward's arrest and return to Washington, after he had forfeited his bond. Upon the petition of the bondsmen the court issued a rule on the county to show cause why the prayer of the petitioners should not be granted. The stockholders as well as the bondsmen will make answer to this rule. The stockholders, as was stated to the court some time since, expect to ask for a certain distribution of the amount of this bond, as provided under an act of assembly. Yesterday the county commissioners by their solicitor filed an answer to the rule opposing the lifting of the recognizance, as petitioned for by the executors of the late S. G. Walker. The commissioners aver that there is no warrant of law for the lifting of this forfeiture.

DEMONSTBATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE FALL OPENING

Kirk and Clark's big department store on McKean avenue will be the Mecca for all the women of the valley Thursday and Friday of this week. In addition to their annual fall opening on these days will be not only an unusual display of fall and seasonable millinery, but also a demonstration of the American Beauty corset, which is manufactured by that company of Kalamazoo, Mich. This is a corset that is particularly popular with the masses—the feminine masses—and the company is sending one of its most accomplished experts to demonstrate the corset's best points. This is Miss Wray, who will show the ladies how to select corsets best adapted to their respectve figures, and how to lace 'em so that they will make the form as symetrical as a fashion plate. Miss Wray will dispence a lot of corset lore that is valuable to every woman.

The millinery department will show a larger and better display than ever Miss Anna Ellenberger is in charge, and creations will be trimmed to order as desired on short notice. All of the other departments will be especially arranged for the opening sale, with the latest seasonable showtions. The fall opening of Kirk and Clark is always an event that is looked for by the women of the community and the special features arranged will attract large crowds. A handsome souvenir will be given to every lady who visits the American Beauty corset demonstration.

Epidemic of Diphtheria.

An epidemic of diphtheria is raging in Brownsville and bad sewage conditions is held responsible. Dunlaps creek, into which the sewers leads is at low ebb and when the sewage enters the stream it does not pass out into the river but remains along the banks, drying up and giving forth bad odors.

Rev. I. N. Frye and family have gone to Washington, the county seat where they will reside temporarily. Rev. Frye's property on Washington avenue has been purchaed by William Perigran.

Contest For New Members

Protected Home Circle to Have Literary Features.

Charleroi Circle 303. P. H. C., has entered a literary contest for the fall and winter months for the purpose of increasing the membership and at the same time to get into the big class initiation which will be held in Exposition Hall, Pittsburg, December 4. The members of the local circle here entered into the matter with a vim as the record for new applications shows 22 up to last Friday evening and the contest is but two weeks on.

The membership contest is now divided into two sides. C. E Velletay is captain of No. 1 side with colors yellow and green. Frank S. Taylor is captain of side No 2, colors orange and black. A feature of the "grand finale" will be a banquet. Each member getting two new members will be entitled to transportation and admission to the big class at the Exposition building.

Much interest is being taken in P. H. C. circles all through the State as 1,500 new members have been asked for in the campaign.

KEYSTONERS HAVE ROOMS

Meeting of Aggrieved Ones Scheduled This Week.

With a room about 9 by 9, situated over the store of C. C. Crill on Fifth street, to accommodate the large crowds of two or three which seek admittance every once in a while, the Charleroi Keystone Club expects to hold another "rousing" meeting Thursday night Needless to state a big attendance is expected—possibly a dozen or so.

The Keystone party is liberal in its claims for Charleroi. Of the entire vote they claim half for Democratic Outcast Berry and his bunch, or possibly to make sure they may overlap slightly that number in Candidate Tener' home town.

The excuse for the Charleroi section of the Keystone party is obvious—they can't agree to agree with Mr Tener's views, because E. F. Acheson "Ossie" Mitchell and some more party heads from Washington, Pa., and other places say not to. Last night the question was asked of organizers of the party here what was their trouble. Thereupon was poured forth a list of grievances, the entire number of which might be covered by the ungrammatical expression often heard about election time, "He never done nothing for me."

The griveances are all of a more or less petty nature, and even the Charleroi council is brought into the argument. It is a case of personalities from the beginning, evidentally. The Charlerci partisans may be sincere but the objectitons advanced are now well founded.

Girls Arrested

In the dragnet which the Pittsburg police have thrown out in the underworld in Pittsburg, concerning the alleged white slave traffic between that city and New York, two girls from Monongahela valley towns were arrested. They were taken in custody because they were under age, and returned to their homes. They were found in a First avenue resort.

Many noted educators will be in Charleroi next week to attend the Pittsburg Synodical convention at Christ Lutheran church. Heading the number will be Dr. Cristen Jensen, William A. Sore on Grim

Those papers in different quarters of the State who are either supporting Berry, the Keystone candidate for Governor, or knocking the State administrion because they belong to one of the minority factions, are just now turning their batterites upon Grim, the Democratic candidate for Governor. Because he refused to make a deal with Berry, who proposed that both withdraw and effect a fusion, the knockers against the Republican ticket are particularly sore on Grim. By their offer of fusion the Berry people confessed the hoplessness of their cause, and this show down of their weakness is causing the Berry forces much anguish of mind. Hence the diatribes against Grim.

In making the charge that it was the influence of Senator Penrose that induced Grim to reject the fusion proposition, the Berry people make another confession of weakness. If Berry were the formidable candidate his supporter profess to believe, he would be dangerous to Republican success, and the leaders of the latter party be glad to would retire him from the field. If Penrose prefers to have Grim stand, as the Keystoners charge, it is than pretty conclusive evidence that the Republican leaders have nothing to fear from Berry. The serenity with which the Republic State committee are conducting the campaign indicates that they are not at all alarmed over the situation. Four years ago, when there was a fusion between the Democrats and Lincoln Republicans, the regular Republican organization did some tall hustling. There is no general movement over the State against the head of the ticket, and the only thing in the campaign that demands active work is in the Congressional and legislative districts where the Republican central committee has indorsed Democratic candidates.

Monessen's Road Day

So successful was the "Road Day" at Monessen last week, that the business interests of the steel town feel very much encouraged over the prospect of county and State aid in the immediate future in the construction of improved roads to some of the populous trading centers contiguous to the town. The "Road Day" exercises consisted of a meeting of the Monessen Board of Trade, Belle Vernon Civic League and the Westmoreland county commissioners to discuss the claims of the river district citizens for improved roads leading from Monessen to Pricedale and Belle Vernon. The meeting was highly satisfactory, and the commissioners departed with the knowledge that the claims for improved roads were in accordance with conditions that were entitled to such recognition.

One of the strong arguments put forth by the Monessen citizens was the large array of accurate data, regarding the claims of that immediate section for precedence in road improvements. The commissioners were shown the exact amount of assessments levied for taxable purposes in both Monessen and Rostraver township; the amount paid for county purposes, and the percentage this district pays in proportion to the rest of the county. Correct data regarding population, travel, and physical conditions was also at hand, and the commissioners were supplied with a array of evidence that was irrefutable.

There is every indication that Monessen's "Road Day" will be productive of results. When the desired improvement are made a big outside trade will be deflected to Monessen that at the present time is divided among other trading centers

Commenting former Congressman E. F. Acheson's attempt to make a fusion of the Democratic and Keystone parties the Connellsville Courier says:

"Politics makes strange bedfellows, is a old and true observation, and if all the grapevine specials from the underground world of politics are true Pennsylvania is furnishing some conditions of the fact in this campaign.

"In the beginning it was alleged that the political firm of Penrose and Guffey controlled the two great parties of Pennsylvania and dictated their nominations, platforms and politics. The conventions met and nominated two very excellent tickets with the full consent of regularly chosen delegates elected by the people at a direct primary. If there was any bossism at Harrisburg or at Allentown, it was evidently with the consent of the people; and from their decision there is no appeal.

"But there are some excellent citizens in the State who still protested that the people had been deceived, and that it was their patriotic duty to rescue them from the crushing grasp of the machine, so they met together, each delegation being self appointed, and formed another party, which they called the Keystone Party. In their convention was one William H. Berry, a Democratic who pledged himself to the Democratic ticket at Allentown, but who changed his mind at Philadelphia to accept the nomination of the Keystoners for Governor.

"As time went on it developed that neither Webster Grim, the Democratic candidate, nor William H. Berry, the Keystone candidate, had any show of election; and Hon. Ernest Acheson of Washington county and Hon. William J. Brennan of Allegheny county, representatives of the Keystone and the Democratic parties, formed the political partnership of Acheson and Brennan and proposed to eliminate the Democratic and Keystone tickets and nominate a fusion ticket headed by Justice S. L. Mestrezat, David T. Watson or George W. Guthrie.

"It was a wonderful plan for the laying down of the asses and the lambs, but thus far it has failed to strike any keynote hard enough to emit an audible sound, and we now await the next turn of the opposition kaleidoscope."

If I were a railroad conductor,
As through the train I'd go,
I'd have the answer all ready
For every question, "Don't know,"
I'd miss connectins for lots of men,
I'd run lone passengers past,
I'd tell them 'twas eight when I knew it was ten,
And I'd swear that their watches were fast,
For I couldn't afford to be civil
When every man in the load
Would look at my pin and watch and say,
"He stole them things from the road."

The Washington Observer justifies itself in the statement that a "rousing meeting" of Keystone Party was held in Charleroi recently, but which as a matter of fact was not attended by more than ten persons by stating that the meeting was not announced. It really doesn't make any difference.

DO IT NOW

Charleroi People Should Not Wait Until It Is too Late

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, if the kidney secretions are irregular or painful and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Brice Ray, 121 Prospect avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "I can speak as high of Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time as when I publicly recommened it in 1907. At that time I told of the great benefit a member of my family had received from the use of this remedy, procured at Piper Bros.' Drug Store. On several occasions since then, the person referred to has taken this remedy with the best of results.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.

The Cry of the Age is "Back to the Farm"

With the best market in the world at his door, the intensive farmer located in the Monongahela valley is the wise man of his generation.

Every town has as much need of the small truck, fruit and poultry farms around it as it has for more factories. Such farms make living better and cheaper for the laboring man and more business for the merchant.

I have secured control of a large farm within five minutes walk of the borough limits and will, within the next six weeks, sell it out in small farms. I now have purchasers for about one-half of it and owing to the great demand for small farms near Charleroi expect to close all sales for these farms in a very short time.

A farm big enough for all the boys to work as a truck, poultry and fruit farm while the father works at the mill, can be bought for the price of a cheap town lot. Good country school nearby.

A farm big enough to require the whole time of one intensive farmer can be bought for $500.00. Read the Pittsburg papers about the great land show which will be held there within the next few weeks and learn what can be raised on a few acres of ground by the new methods of intensive farming.

Call at the office of Charles O. Frye, 511 Washington Avenue, and get full particulars.

ASSESSMENT CUT DOWN TO 25 CENTS

Through an order of National President T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, the assessment of miners for the support of striking men in the Irwin and other fields has been cut down from $1 00 a month to 25 cents a month. Through the settlement of the Illinois strike there was a less number of non-employed miners to support, and from this and the fact that there had been some objections to the $1.00 assessment the deduction was made.

Losing His Senses.

A mischievous boy, having got possession of his grandfather's spectacles, privately took out the glasses. When the old gentleman put them on, finding he could not see, he exclaimed: "Mercy on me! I've lost my sight!" But, thinking the impediment to vision might be the dirtiness of the glasses, he took them off to wipe them, when, not feeling them, he, still more frightened, cried out: "Why, what's come now? I've lost my feeling too!"—London Ideas.

Stop Women And Consider

This Fact—that in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, was for years under her direction, and has ever since her decease continued to advise women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty causes them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. Such questioning and examination is unnecessary. Without cost you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
